Mr. E. A. Carpenter is back from the northern markets where he made the purchases of the fall millinery and other goods for the Hattiwasser and Carpenter store and will be in fine shape to serve the wants of the good women of the community.

Probate Judge W. F. Ewart will leave on Monday for a two weeks' vacation in North Carolina. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Ewart. He has been very closely confined now for several years and his physician advises that a rest is essential. He expects to return to the office on the 24th of August.

Mr. Adam L. Aull received a telegram on Thursday announcing the arrival of his son Luther D. Aull at Newport News. Mr. Aull had four sons over seas and in the service, and when Luther David is discharged they will be all out. Luther David expects to get his discharge very soon and reach home.

Mr. R. C. Boylston who went with a party in his car on Wednesday to the big cotton convention in Columbia says they had the hardest rain he ever saw on the return trip just below Prosperity. The rain in the middle of the road came up over the running board of the car. He says that the Richland end of the road for 16 miles is very good but the remainder is bad.

We had the pleasure of meeting on the train on Tuesday Mr. W. E. Lawson, now of New York but formerly of Wilmington. Mr. Lawson is an editorial writer on the New York Times. Many Newberry people will remember his wife who was Miss Dollie Huett. Mr. Lawson says that Coppock Speers, a Newberry boy who has been on the Times for a good many years, is now the star reporter of the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lee of Kings-tree and their daughter, Miss Serena Lee, passed through Newberry on Monday afternoon en route to Dyson in Greenwood county to visit Mrs. Lee's sister, Mrs. L. B. Aull, and from there will proceed to the mountains. They were traveling in their touring car. Mr. Lee gave The Herald and News a pleasant call. He has been urged to make the race for congress in his district and would stand a good showing, but he says he will not now be lured into the political field. He is a leading and successful lawyer at his home town. And a mighty fine fellow.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

The sun came out beautifully on Thursday morning and the morning was delightful.

Cotton dropped about five cents the pound in a week, or about $35 the bale. A pretty good fall.

There was a heavy rain in Newberry Wednesday afternoon and some lightning.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. H. W. Schumpert at 6 o'clock.

We understand that Supervisor Sample is going to have the new road to Prosperity worked out as soon as it is dry enough to do the work.

Miss Annie L. Smith withdraws from the firm of Miss Annie L. Smith and company and the business will be continued by Mrs. J. W. White.

Watermelons are getting more plentiful on the streets and the price has come down at little, but the quality is not as good as usual, most too much rain to make good melons.

Mr. Homer Schumpert received a slight stroke from lightning while taking shelter from the rain in the garage at Mr. C. H. Williams' on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. W. O. Bodell will preach at Clayton Memorial church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, old time, also Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend these services.

The people of the Utopia section have purchased a community road scrape and will keep the road from that section to town worked up and also other much traveled community roads in good condition.

On Tuesday it was reported at Newberry that the heavy rains up the road around Chappells and Old Town had flooded the track so that the trains had to run over in the water.

The Mt. Pilgrim school district reported that there was no white person in the district over fourteen years of age who could not write and read. There was no need for a lay by school in that district.

Mr. Wilbur R. Gauntt who abandoned his Maxwell farm in Florida to come back to Newberry as a good sensible man would do brings in the first open boll of cotton and he says it comes from Gauntt and Hunter's farm near Newberry.

Mr. Herbert Franklin has purchased the Newberry cafe from Johnson and Johnson at 803 Main street and will continue the business and promises to give the best service the market affords and will appreciate the trade.

They tell us that the road from the Gum Spring branch to Kinards is in excellent condition. Mr. Johnson has been using the scrape on it. The recent heavy rains have made it difficult to keep any roads like those we have in this section in very good condition.

The meeting at Unity will begin this Friday morning. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Carson, will be assisted by the Rev. J. R. Hooten. There will be service each day at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8:30 o'clock and the meeting will go through Sabbath and possibly through Monday.

Street Overseer Jo Werts has had Boundary street from Caldwell west scraped for which we thank him, but we would be pleased to have him haul some gravel and fill the ditch which they left in front of our door, or have it drained so that the water would not stand there and maintain an unsightly mudhole in front of the gate.

Polly of the Circus the greatest child's play ever written will be seen at the opera house in pictures on Thursday, August 14. You certainly will want to remember this and be sure to let all the children see it. In the same connection without extra charge will be presented the 4th episode of the Masked Rider.

The Rev. W. E. Furcron will hold a baptismal service at Oakland Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A meeting has just closed at Oakland and Mr. Furcron says they had a great meeting. He was assisted in the meeting by Rev. J. B. Turner, student pastor of Wake Forest college. There were twenty additions to the church.

Don't forget that little matter of renewing your subscription while the price remains only $1.50. We would regret to have the labor and trouble of taking any names off the list on the first of September, and then have to place them back in a few days, which we know would be the result, because you may think you can get along without The Herald and News, but you will find you can't, and will be borrowing your neighbor's, and that will not suit you.

Suitor upon suitor asks for the hand of Rhona, the pretty, merry daughter of Panuel, the gypsy king. But Rhona, who is destined to become the next ruler of the tribe, loves only one—Wester Churen. Upon him she bestows her fair hand, to the undying wrath of Francisco Buckley, Churen's chief rival, who promptly seeks some means of revenge upon both the girl and the successful suitor. See the rest of "The Sneak" with Gladys Brockwell as Rhona at the opera house Wednesday, August 20.

We would like to ask again a question that we have asked many times before, but which no one has answered. What is the good of stopping at a crossing if you do not stop until you have crossed? What good would it do to stop at a railroad crossing if you did not stop until you had crossed the track? The way most of the stop signs for autos in Newberry are observed, if observed at all, is to stop after you have crossed the street or after the car is in the middle of the street that is being crossed. We have yet to see the advantage of such stopping.

TELEPHONE AUTO TRUCK STRIKES WAGON.

On Wednesday afternoon while the telephone truck was coming to town down College street, running pretty fast, in endeavoring to pass the wagon of Mr. Otto Klettner, driven by August Klettner who was coming along at a pretty good gait, the rear of the truck struck the rear wheel of the wagon and smashed it up and threw August on the ground. He was pretty badly bruised about the head and the leg and arm, but it is not thought that the injuries are at all serious.

Smith-Kinard.

On Thursday at 11 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. C. E. Peele, Miss Annie L. Smith and Mr. Henry H. Kinard were united in marriage. Mr. Kinard did not let many of his friends know that the happy event was to take place but they all wish him mighty well and feel that he has done the right thing in taking unto himself a helpmate, and that there is no mistake. The editor of The Herald and News especially wishes both of them all the good things of this earth and great happiness.

Special Sermon to Men Only

The Evangelist J. M. Hames will preach a special sermon to men only Sunday afternoon August 10 at 3:30 under big Gospel tent near depot. Professors and doctors have endorsed this everywhere. Whatever you do you can't afford to miss this. The evangelist wants 1,000 men and boys Sunday afternoon.

E. C. Burdette, Singer.

Meeting At Bethel

A protracted meeting will be held at Bethel beginning Sunday, August 10. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. H. P. Bennett of Salley, S. C. Mr. Bennett is not only a good preacher but an earnest Christian. The entire community and public at large are cordially invited to attend the meeting. Services also next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

A. M. Culbertson, Pastor.

PAPER CHANGES HANDS.

Lexington Dispatch Published Under New Management.

Lexington, Aug. 4.—The Lexington Dispatch-News is being published this week under entirely new management, the former owners, Sam J. Leapheart and G. M. Harman, having closed out on August 1, to Ira M. Sligh and W. T. Walker, of Columbia. Mr. Harman has been engaged in the newspaper business for nearly fifty years, during most of which time he has been owner and publisher of the Lexington Dispatch. On March 1st, 1917, The Dispatch was consolidated with the Lexington News since which time the name of the paper has been the Dispatch-News, while Mr. Harman releases his ownership in the paper, he will still be associated with the new owners. Mr. Leapheart will quit the newspaper business entirely and will devote his time and attention to his large farming interests and to push the business of the Lexington Cotton and Fertilizer Company, of which he is secretary and treasurer. He is also engaged in the real estate business.

The new owners of the Dispatch-News are experienced newspaper men and both are practical printers. Mr. Sligh is originally from Newberry. It was on The Herald and News of Newberry, where he first learned the printing business. For ten years he has been a linotype operator in Columbia. Mr. Walker, originally from Camden, has been in the printing business for thirty years. He holds the position of clerk to the legislative committee on printing. Both are affable men and have already made many friends in Lexington.

FURTHER MEETING IN INTEREST LAY-BY SCHOOLS

There will be a meeting at Chapells Friday, August 8, at 5 p. m., in the interest of lay-by schools.

A meeting was held at Zion Thursday night at which Miss Ola Brown told of the plans for adults to go to school.

School opened at Wheeland Thursday at 7 p. m. with Rev. J. C. Westerman as teacher.

School opened at Hunter-DeWalt Friday at 7 p. m. with Mr. D. L. Wedman as teacher.

School will open at Tabernacle Monday, August 11, at 4 p. m., with Miss Ola Miller as teacher, as a result of a meeting held there Wednesday night. Miss Sadie Goggans explained lay-by schools.

Miss Sadie Goggans, President.

LAY BY SCHOOLS HAVE OPENED IN SEVERAL DISTRICTS

At Long Lane Monday night very few people attended the meeting to hear Mr. Alan Johnstone and Miss Ola Brown. Of those few three enrolled and will be very much disappointed if an adult school is not secured. At Silverstreet two dozen people came and four handed in their names to Miss Sadie Goggans as future pupils. These four say they will make a canvas to see what pupils they can secure.

At St. Lukes Tuesday night a very good crowd heard Miss Ola Brown and Miss Sadie Goggans outline the plan of "Lay-by" schools. Ten pupils enrolled. This warranted a school which opened Wednesday at 6 o'clock with Miss Estelle Bowers as teacher. Miss Bowers will also teach at O'Neill.

Miss Lizzie Neal opened the Union "Lay-by" school Thursday. Miss Neal will also teach Johnstone.

Miss Dollie Mae Senn taught the Trinity "Lay-by" school for the first time Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Miss Mattie Lee Cromer started the Mt. Bethel-Garmany school on Wednesday.

The schools have all opened with interested grown ups and with good prospects.

Mt. Tabor Pastorate.

The annual meeting of the joint council of the Mt. Tabor Lutheran pastorate will be held at Mt. Olive church on Saturday, August 9th at 10 o'clock a. m.

J. B. Harman, Pastor.

Wheat and Corn Take A Tumble.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Grain and provisions crashed heavily downward today in value. Selling was on a large scale influenced chiefly by the widespread agitation against the high cost of living. Within an hour, corn prices dropped 5 1-2 cents to 8 cents a bushel and pork $1.25 a barrel.

December delivery of corn, the principal option, fell to $1.49 1-4 and January pork to 48.00.

HIS OTHER EYE

Leavenworth was the most polite man in the world. When a woman apologized for gouging him in the eye with a parasol he said, "Don't mention it, madam; I have another one."

Now that may be true if one of your eyes is giving you trouble, yet BEWARE for you don't have but two, and you will need both of them sooner or later. My glasses give the best of vision, and relieve eye strain.
